

Buy a blanket & keep an orphan warm this winter...

Mwandi Village is situated on the banks of the great Zambezi River, 150km west of Livingstone, the tourist capital of Zambia. The Mwandi Orphans & Vulnerable Children Project works with members of the Mwandi community to support, love, feed, educate and provide practical assistance to those children most in need.

There are around 1990 orphans and vulnerable children who have lost one or both parents. Many of these children are cared for by older siblings, elderly sick grandparents or neighbors. At night most of the children sleep on cold mud floors with nothing to keep them warm.

In 2013 the OVC project gave out 750 blankets and kept children warm last winter...

We need your help to reach our target of 750 blankets for this winter!

The program relies on your contributions...
